Minutes – Nancy moved to approve the February minutes, Ton seconded, motion passed.

Funding Requests – MVHS Debate funding request for $3500 for Nationals. Club presented and noted that Administration is looking at how district funding is not comparing to some of the other schools at our same size. Hotel, entry fees, travel costs to be supported. MVHS is hosting a tournament this weekend and the funding will cover some of the costs. This would help to compete at a National level. The parents are working on forming a booster club to help offset costs.

Nancy moves we approve $2500 for debate team, Traci seconded the motion. Approved with changes with a majority vote. Jaclyn Steiner abstained.

Financial Report - Matt presented the financial report, current balance is $37,809.97 with a loss for October. Nancy moved to approve the financial report, Mark seconded. Motion passed.

Awards & Recognition –recognize teams for their state events.

- 10/18 Girls Tennis – 3 shirts = $30
- 10/21 Girls Golf – 6 bags
- 11/2 Cross Country – 20 shirts = $200
- 11/23 Cheer – 29 shirts = $290

Scholarship information is on the website.

Membership – We have gotten a few additional members and expecting some additional members driven by senior scholarships.

Concessions – We will need to look at new grills for 2020 Football season. Will likely run around $1000. Moving to indoor concessions. Handwarmer sales as an idea for next year.

Fundraising – Lakeside is finished for the season. We had good success with this as a fundraising tool for teams to take.

Communications – Gearing up for scholarships. We will be doing ads in the Jag upcoming issues.

Mulch Sale – We are still deciding when the mulch sale will take place

Upcoming Events – Meetings, tentatively scheduled for second Wednesday of each month. The next meeting is tentatively scheduled for December 11th at 7p at MVHS Media Center.

Concession signup for winter support will go out next week for basketball and wrestling.

Meeting adjourned at 8:53p
